

Privacy Protection

Privacy protection is an important topic at Nussbaum Group. You have the right to know, which data we collect, when it is collected and what it is used for. We have taken technical and organizational measures to ensure, that the data protection regulations are observed both by us and the service providers commissioned by us. In the course of the further development of our online offers and the implementation of new technologies, changes to this information may be implemented. We therefore recommend consulting this information from time to time.

Access to Online Offers

Our online offers can be used without disclosing personal data. For inquiries sent through the contact form, the information will only be saved for the purpose of answering the request. By submitting the form, the user declares his consent that his message – including the data collected in the form – may be forwarded to other authorities if this is necessary to answer the request. Privacy Protection is fully respected if data is distributed further. If a user does not wish to agree to this declaration, he is invited to use other contact options such as email, phone or post service. In case of order, the personal data will only be used for business purposes. We do not forward any data to third parties. We emphasize that we save the data of the users such as personal information and IP addresses.

Protection of Minors

Persons under the age of 18 should not transmit any personal data to us without the consent of their parents or legal guardians. We do not request any personal data from children or adolescents and we do not knowingly collect such data.
